Sir:

RESPONSE TO OFFICE ACTION

This paper is being filed in response to the Office Action of October 15, 2007.

Reconsideration of the present application, including pending claims 1, 2, 4, 6, 13, and 15, is respectfully requested in light of the remarks below.

The present invention relates to a unique data carrier that makes it easier to keep the prescriptions and other information of a patient confidential, and in particular to keep patient information from being retrieved by unauthorized individuals from discarded documents, records, and other materials containing identifiable patient information. The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) Privacy Rule created national standards for guarding individuals' medical records, and it is the policy of most health care facilities to do so, as well. Shredding or incinerating empty plastic pill vials, discarded patient ID bracelets, and used plastic bags bearing patient labels is
